

USE Vegetable Sicilian HALL'S HAIR RENEWER.

It is a medicinal preparation, and, at the same time, an elegant and cleanly toilet article. Its action upon the scalp is healthful. It nourishes the glands which support the hair, and causes thin, dry hair to become thick, soft, and vigorous. It restores the color of youth to locks which have become faded with age or disease; and relieves and cures itching, caused by humors of the scalp. Dr. George Gray, Nashua, N. H., writes: "It gives me pleasure to testify to the wonderful effects produced by Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer, as observed by me in very many cases. It will certainly restore the hair to its original color. It cleanses the head of dandruff, and leaves the hair soft, glossy, and beautiful." F. T. Sandheim, 1010 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "After unavailingly trying a number of preparations to prevent my hair from falling out, and, realizing that I was fast becoming bald, I tried, as a last resort, Hall's Hair Renewer. I have used only four bottles of the Renewer, and am perfectly satisfied that it is the best preparation in the market for checking the falling out of hair, invigorating the hair roots, and promoting a new growth."

Howard, Newport, N. H., writes: "I suffered for years with Scrofulous humors. After using two bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, I great relief. It has entirely restored me to health." James French, Atchison, Kans., writes: "To all persons suffering from Liver Complaint, I would strongly recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was afflicted with a disease of the liver for nearly two years, when a friend advised me to take this medicine. It gave prompt relief, and has cured me." Mrs. H. M. Kidder, 41 Dwight st., Boston, Mass., writes: "For several years I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla in my family. I never feel safe, even without it. As a liver medicine and general purifier of the blood, it has no equal." Mrs. A. B. Allen, Winterpeck, Va., writes: "My youngest child, two years of age, was taken with Bowel Complaint, which we could not cure. We tried many remedies, but he continued to grow worse, and finally became so reduced in flesh that we could only move him upon a pillow. It was suggested by one of the doctors that Scrofula might be the cause of the trouble. We procured a bottle of

At Home

and commenced giving it to him. It surely worked wonders, for, in a short time, he was completely cured."

THE DEARS AT DEER PARK

RETIRED IN SWEET SECLUSION AND QUIETUDE.

Taking Life Easy Surrounded by Large Trees and Wild Shrubbery—Strolling About the Grounds and Drives and Over the Picturesque Mountains—Incidents.

DEER PARK, Md., June 5.—President Cleveland could not have found a more retired spot to spend his honeymoon had he hunted the country over. The Baltimore and Ohio cottage which the bride and groom occupy is on the brow of one of the highest mountain peaks immediately to the southwest of the Grand hotel. The cottage while very plain, is cozily constructed and homelike and is surrounded by very large old trees and wild shrubbery.

The president takes life easy, and apparently enjoys the quiet which surrounds him. The only other persons occupying cottages in the hotel park are the Davis and Elkins families. Ex-Senator Davis told a friend that the president, when he arranged to spend the honeymoon at Deer Park, decided to cast aside all business and devote the time exclusively to rest and the entertainment of his bride. Thus far the program has been carried out to the letter. Strolls about the grounds, and drives over the picturesque mountains are being indulged in by the distinguished visitors, and the president at intervals chats with the Baltimore and Ohio officers, who are stationed on the pretty little rustic bridge which leads to the pathway running to the cottage. When Mr. Cleveland walked down the path he remarked to the officers:

"I suppose this is what is termed Senator Davis' dead line?" "Yes, sir," responded one of the detectives, "No one passes here."

The president then jokingly alluded to the correspondents at the station, and said he supposed they would keep the world thoroughly informed as to his movements. Since the arrival of Ex-Senator Davis, the president has called upon him, and it is understood the intention is to have a little fishing in the ex-senator's grounds, where there is a creek said to be bountifully supplied with choice bass.

The afternoon was decided upon for a drive to Observatory mountain, which is situated a couple of miles to the northwest of the Deer Park hotel.

Mrs. Cleveland, attired in a becoming grey suit, appeared on the piazza of the cottage for a brief period shortly before noon, and seemed to greatly enjoy the bracing mountain air. The couple make no effort to conceal themselves and have on two occasions walked by the station where the correspondents do their work.

There are but two cottages in the village, about a mile from the station, where accommodations can be secured for the thirty or more ambitious scribes who are on the alert for material out of which to frame dispatches for their respective journals, these are crowded.

The bill of fare thus far has been very trying—salt meats being the most palatable dish offered—but a strike occurred, and the boys are promised "fried chicken" for dinner at "double rates."

Deer Park "out of season" cannot be said to be the most hospitable village in the state, but it might be worse.

At 12 o'clock neither the President nor Mrs. Cleveland had been away from the cottage.

Ex-Senator Davis, in conversation, said that the President and Mrs. Cleveland would lunch with himself and family early in the afternoon and afterwards take an extended drive wherever the bride and groom desired to go.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 5.—The wife of ex-Marshall Bazaine, of France, and her son have arrived here. The lady is from a very well known Mexican family, and showed the pluck and nerve of the women of her nation in effecting the escape of the marshal from his prison at Sta. Margarita.

STRICTLY PRIVATE.

The President Puts the Usual Injunction of "Quiet" to His Movements.

NEW YORK, June 5.—A special to the Herald from Plymouth New Hampshire, says: The rumors that President and Mrs. Cleveland would visit New Hampshire during the summer have been confirmed. The president will spend a portion of his August vacation in the White mountains, making a tour of the famous resorts. No public notice has been given of the intended visit, because of an injunction placed by the president on the hotel proprietors who are to entertain him.

Mrs. Cleveland has sent a letter to Bethlehem, expressing his intention of visiting there. He will come to New Hampshire from the Adirondacks by special train to Bethlehem, where he will be met by the state officials and be escorted to Fabyas, Crawford house, the White mountain notch, the summit and other points. He will remain a few days in the mountains and then go over the Boston & Lowell road, stopping at Plymouth, Laconia, Concord and Manchester to Massachusetts, where he will visit some of the seaside resorts.

ESCAPED HIS NOTICE.

General Sherman and the Hendricks Obsequies—Mistake Somewhere.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 5.—Gen. Sherman having asserted at a public address that the reason he did not attend Vice-President Hendricks' funeral was because he had not been invited, and having stated also that no place had been reserved in the funeral procession for representatives of the army and navy, Gen. Fred Kuebler, grand master of the Hendricks obsequies, confronted Gen. Sherman and told him that he had personally addressed the general an invitation.

He also handed the general a newspaper published at the time of the funeral, showing that the army and navy had been provided for. Gen. Sherman was evidently embarrassed and seemed glad to escape from Kuebler, the gentleman accompanying him with the simple remark that "it had escaped his notice."

MAMMOTH LENS.

A Prosperous Railroad.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 5.—The Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis & Chicago railroad is about to perform a brilliant feat of financiering. It proposes refunding its bonded debt of $5,000,000 now bearing 6 per cent. interest, and to issue an equal amount of bonds at 4 per cent. It is a fact not generally known that for some time this road has been on a paying basis. The management of its affairs is in capable hands, the bonds of the company has been raised to a point which it is thought will render this refunding scheme of easy accomplishment. This will be a saving of $100,000 per year.

Fatal Political Quarrel.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 5.—Details have reached here of a murder in Steuversport, Warrick county, near the line of Spencer county. Dr. Agie, a prominent physician of that place, was killed by John L. Gentry. The quarrel originated in the heat of a political discussion, during which Gentry drew a Bowie knife and cut Agie's throat from ear to ear, the victim living only about five minutes. The murderer managed to escape. It is probable that if caught he will be lynched without further ceremony.

To Hang for Certain.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., June 5.—John Stevens the mulatto charged with the murder of five people near Coffeyville, Kan., has been arrested and committed for trial. Dr. George Eyle, whose house the murderer first visited, had sworn out a warrant for Stevens charging him with horse stealing. A MILANESE TRAGEDY.

A BETRAYED LOVER SHOTS HIMSELF AND HIS SWEETHEART.

The Coquette Suddenly Cools and the Green-Eyed Monster Takes Possession of the Lover—"Farewell Forever"—They Die Together—Remorseful Murderess.

MILAN, June 5.—"Onida" has the subject for another novel ready to hand in the tragedy which has just startled Milan. A lad and lass—Francesco Carre, an ardent waiter, and Caroline Bresse, a coquettish waitress—lately met and fell in love and were betrothed.

Last week the coquette suddenly cooled, however, and the green-eyed monster took possession of her lover. Francesco called at Carolina's house in the Via Solferino, and implored her to tell him why her conduct had become so chilling. Carolina refused to explain; she had changed her mind like other women, and that was sufficient.

"You have, quite thrown me over," said Francesco. "Quite," replied Carolina. "Let us shake hands, then, and part good friends!" exclaimed Francesco. "Farewell forever!" "Farewell," echoed Carolina.

The next instant her lover, drawing a revolver from his pocket, placed it against his mistress' breast and fired thrice, then calmly standing beside the prostrate body he pointed the weapon at his own head. The first shot did not kill him, and he fired again twice, lodging the shots in his groin and right lung. When the neighbors rushed in soon after Francesco and Carolina lay on the floor together, weltering in their blood, but still breathing. They were removed to two different hospitals, mortally wounded.

A Remorseful Murderess.

GENEVA, June 5.—The court of assizes in this city was crowded. The attraction was a sensational murder case, the prisoner, a wretched, haggard woman named Lombardi, who stood charged with having on the 2d of May, 1884, cut the throats of three of her children and irreparably injured the fourth. Having committed the crime, she was seized with remorse, and covered the bed on which the bodies of her victims lay with lilacs and roses, after which she made a vain attempt to commit suicide. For the defence it was pleaded that prisoner was driven to the crime by despair and frenzy caused by her husband's cruelty. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty and the prisoner was sent to a lunatic asylum.

GLASGOW, June 5.—The Highland-Reform League of this city has adopted resolutions in favor of Home Rule for Scotland and a separate parliament.

BUCKEYE MEDICOS.

Election of Officers and Conclusion of a Most Interesting Session.

AKRON, O., June 5.—The Ohio State Medical society, now in the third day of its session here, has just chosen Toledo as the place of meeting one year hence. The officers elected are: President, Thomas McElbright, of Akron. Vice-presidents—J. M. Weaver, of Dayton; W. S. Battles, of Shreve; X. C. Scott, of Cleveland; Jesse Snodgrass, of Kenton. Secretary, G. A. Collamore, of Toledo. Assistant secretary, E. C. Brush, of Zanesville. Treasurer, T. W. Jones, of Columbus. Reports of cases of abdominal section for removal of ovarian tumors elicited the most interesting discussion of the session. Dr. A. Dunlap, of Springfield, reported, amid applause, that of 396 operations of the sort he had performed 346 patients had been saved. The papers on the subject made the statement that in desperate abdominal operations twenty out of 100 lives were saved.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Counsel for Mr. O'Brien, receiver of the Broadway Surface railroad has served a petition upon the officials of the roads interested, and on the corporation counsel to fix compensation for the use of the tracks of the Broadway road and ascertain that the rent of the road should be paid to the receiver and held by him until disposed of by the courts.

She Tried to Kill Herself.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., June 5.—Hattie Powell tried to hang herself but was cut down. She may yet die. She made the attempt because her brother told her that a report had reached his ears of her having criminal relations with a young man who was relating the story to his friends. The girl is of a respectable family.

Shelbyville's Sensation.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., June 5.—Oscar Snyder, a jealous Indianapolis man, who has a pretty, self-supporting wife here, made a great scene on visiting her, because she would not return to Indianapolis with him. TEXAS CROPS.

Cereals Have Universally Suffered—Cotton in Fair to Good Condition.

GALVESTON, Tex., June 5.—Crop reports from two hundred points in eighty counties in Texas, embracing the entire cotton, corn, and small grain sections of the state show the acreage under cultivation to be an increase over 1885, approximating 12 per cent.

The severely cold weather of the winter and early spring inflicted serious injury upon wheat, and many counties report losses of nearly 80 per cent. Oats, in consequence of the late drought, are, in a number of counties, a complete failure, and the entire crop will not amount to more than half the yield of last year.

Corn, in most localities, has not sustained serious damage from lack of rain. Cotton, though two weeks late on an average, and small, except in the coast counties where the plant has commenced, blooming, is clean and free from grass and weeds, and has not yet sustained any injury of consequence on account of dry weather.

Departure of Our Mary.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Mary Anderson, looking quite charming in a suit of maroon and gold, plucked rose leaves from a huge red bouquet on the deck of the Britannic late yesterday afternoon and blew them shoreward to a few personal friends, who stood on the pier. Many beautiful floral gifts had been sent to her, but none of the well known actors or actresses were on the wharf to say good bye to her. It is well understood, however, that she does not care for that sort of thing. Miss Anderson is accompanied on her voyage by her brother. She goes to London, where her mother and sisters are, and later she will travel with her relatives in France. She does not expect to act again for a year, and has no definite plans.

Rifle Talk.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Gen. Wingate, President of the National Rifle association, when asked why the British Rifle association did not accept the American association's challenge to shoot a military rifle match: "The reason why they did not," said the general, "I learned from Commissary Oliver of the Twenty-third regiment, who took a personal letter from me over to Sir John Halpin. That gentleman said it was due to extremely hard times there, and the political struggle now going on, takes away interest in the match, and would make it too hazardous a risk to undertake." This makes the third refusal on the part of the British riflemen to accept the American challenge to shoot since the last meeting.

That Old Chestnut.

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., June 5.—A courier arrived from the Dragon mountains, fifteen miles north of this place, bringing news that the soldiers have driven fifteen Indians into a natural fortification, known as the Cochise stronghold. A company of troops are behind the hostiles and two other companies are trying to head them off. It was expected that a fight would take place between the troops and Indians before dark, and it seemed to be probable that the soldiers would be able to kill or capture the redskins. There are a great many wood choppers in these mountains and it is feared the Indians may kill some of them before being driven out.

After Twenty Years.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 5.—Twenty years ago in Grant county, Ky., G. W. Osborn and Samuel Anderson, sons of prosperous farmers, quarreled about the sale of some sheep, and Anderson shot and killed Osborn. It was said to have been an unprovoked murder, and Anderson fled the state and disappeared. A short while ago a man forty years of age, haggard and worn, returned to the scene of the crime which had almost been forgotten and gave himself up, saying he was Osborn's slayer. He was disbelieved at first, but the matter was investigated and new indictments were made out, and the case has been called for trial.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Sheriff Grant has summoned a panel of 150 jurors for Monday next to appear before Judge Barrett in the court of Oyer and Terminer. On that day District Attorney Martine will move for the trial of ex-Alderman Wm. F. Kirk for alleged bribery in connection with the Broadway railroad franchise. Mr. Martine promised Kirk's counsel a week's time to prepare for the defence and by agreement Judge Barrett will give at least that delay. The trial will be more sensational than Jaehue's was.

Baxter Gibbeted.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 5.—James Baxter (colored) was hanged at 11:30 a. m. His neck was not broken and he died in fifteen minutes of strangulation.
